What will CCRR do for me?

- Find care in a Navy certified military home
- Find care in a Navy certified civilian home
- Find care in a military childcare center
- Find care for children with special needs
- Offer referrals to convenient civilian child care centers
- Provide Parent Education information
- NACCRRA when we have nothing else to offer

WAIT LIST: Excess

When you apply for childcare you go on this list until we can place your child in a military childcare home or center - based on priority with single, dual-active and active duty with working spouse getting top priority

WAIT LIST: Preference

- For parents who have military childcare, but prefer a different type of care
- For parents who are using non-military care and prefer military childcare
- Priority based on date of registration

CHILD DEVELOPMENT HOME

- Care in the home of a military spouse (or civilian)
- Age appropriate activities
- Navy Certified
- Navy Monitored
- Navy Inspected
- Up to six children
- Only 2 under age 2

CHILD DEVELOPMENT CENTER

- Group care
- Age appropriate activities
- Infants 1:4 max 8
- Pre-tods 1:5 max 10
- Toddlers 1:7 max 14
- Pre-school 1:12
  max 24
  two teachers
  per class

SCHOOL AGE CARE

We are unable to offer care for sick children

Parents will need a back-up care plan for times their child may be sick.

How long does it take to find a childcare home?

In most cases the Child Care and Referral Staff can find care within a few weeks in the Child Development Home Program.
